Getting ready for the 2010 European MDD

ForeignExchange rep to speak at Boston-area regulatory conference

Waltham, MA, July 1, 2009 – ForeignExchange's Jason Heaton will be speaking at a Boston-area regulatory conference on the topic of the new European Medical Device Directive (MDD). The Regulatory Affairs Professional Society (RAPS) Boston chapter is sponsoring a day of networking and expert presentations entitled, "Racing to Ensure Compliance With the New EU Medical Device Directive Requirements - 2010 Deadline" on Thursday, July 16th. The event will be held at Bentley University in Waltham, MA.

During presentations and interactive breakout sessions, regulatory experts, including representatives from such Notified Bodies as KEMA, TUV, GMED and BSI, will share their knowledge about the revisions to help attendees quickly and effectively implement these new guidelines. Jason's presentation is entitled, "Translation Requirements: Global Access to Medical Devices Technologies" and will focus on best practices for creating global labeling and MDD-compliant translated software that doesn't introduce new risks for medical devices.
