

NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Michael Bry joins ForeignExchange Translations' executive management team

New Sales VP will enhance ForeignExchange's position as the leader in medical translations

Waltham, MA, July 10, 2009 – ForeignExchange Translations, Inc. has hired Michael Bry to be the company's new Vice President of Sales. In this role, Bry will be responsible for the overall direction of the company's sales activities, which include business development, account penetration and client satisfaction.

Bry is a seasoned veteran with over 25 years of sales, sales management and sales training experience. Prior to joining the company, he spent nine years at Forrester Research in various sales leadership positions. During his tenure at Forrester, Bry earned a strong reputation for hiring, developing and retaining sales talent. Prior to Forrester, Mike held regional sales management positions with IKON Document Services, Standard Register and UARCO.

ForeignExchange Translations President, Andres Heuberger, says, "After a decade in business, and in a period of tremendous growth, we needed new leadership to guide our Sales team to the next level. Mike Bry is the right person for that job. He brings great leadership and sales skills and experience and the right personality for our company. We look forward to his contributions."
