FOREIGNEXCHANGE TRANSLATIONS NAMES KARL LAUBSCHER
VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES & MARKETING

Seasoned industry veteran to spearhead company's global expansion

Watertown, MA (November 23, 2005)—ForeignExchange Translations, Inc., the leading provider of translation services to the life sciences, today announced that Karl Laubscher has joined the company as Vice President of Sales & Marketing.

Based in the company's Watertown, Massachusetts, office, Laubscher will oversee ForeignExchange's global sales and marketing efforts to the medical device, pharmaceutical, and biotech industries. Laubscher will also join ForeignExchange's executive management team.

"This is an exciting time to be joining ForeignExchange Translations," says Laubscher. "From the Multilingual Compliance Process™, to the educational audio conferences, to the FXTracker project-reporting extranet and strict certification procedures for translators and editors, everything is geared toward providing clients with the highest level of quality and service."

Laubscher comes to ForeignExchange with a successful track record of growing service-delivery organizations. In several executive positions at Akibia, he was a principle contributor to the company's growth to over 400 employees and $100 million in annual revenue.

"We are delighted to expand the company's leadership team with someone of Karl's caliber," says ForeignExchange president Andres Heuberger, "Karl brings with him invaluable skills, experience, and enthusiasm that will enable us to take our business development efforts to the next level."
